3 dots = Mi Vida Loca (My Crazy Life) or the three places the gang will lead you: Hospital, Cemetery, Prison. Commonly on hands or face (near eye).

Pachuco Cross = Rape, Robbery, Murder. Commonly between thumb and index.

Laugh Now, Cry Later = Commonly associated with gang members, but alone not necessarily a gang tattoo

5-point Star or Crown = People Nation

6-Point Star = Folk Nation

All Seeing Eye/Pyramid = Sees everything but does not tell

Teardrops = Typically on the “strong side” or the side of their face that falls under the nation they represent (Folk versus People). Often, gang members will have teardrops colored in which means they have done “work” (killed someone), and they will have them under their opposite eye or the same eye not colored in. This means they have suffered the loss of a loved one.

Spider web = The individual has done prison time. It can also show racism.

Hatchet Man = Followers of the Insane Clown Posse (ICP), known as Juggalos or Juggalettes, use this as a symbol.

3 Rs = Respect, Reputation, Retaliation

Three ways to create a tattoo: Cut, Burn, or Sand (Friction)
The larger in size and higher on the body the numbers are tattooed, the more important the individual is.
